

Conference Oversight Report
October, 2022

The planning for the Chicago International Conference in November, 2023 is progressing. A bank account is being opened this month. A conference flyer will be available at the Cancun Trustee meeting. Officers and committee chairs have been appointed. A website has been established and is up and running with limited information. The conference committee has furnished all requested information and is following G.A. guidelines.

This committee has not received any bids or inquiries for future conferences.

Respectively submitted,

Wendy B.
Conference Chair
