The committee met on September 16, 2019 by telephone. Six members attended. We spent the entire call going over bullet points related to each broad heading that will be covered in the handbook. This task is now complete. The next step will be to present our findings at the Montreal Board of Trustees meeting in October and subsequent to that, begin the task of drafting the handbook. Our next meeting will be on October 7, 2019.

Respectfully submitted:
