

The month of September was a relatively slow month for the IRC. We were basically busy with updating our website with countries such as the Netherlands, Ukraine and Peru. I have also been in contact with the same people in Kenya regarding their format questions for their meetings.

Ara H