

The committee has received more information from the Cancun Committee but we are still waiting for the final report. I had hoped to have a conference call in December but because of major back surgery I was unable to do that. We will have the conference call in January to discuss Cancun and the upcoming conference in Phoenix.

Fred L
Area 8