Key points:

- First conference call Sunday 07/17/16 8:00am US Eastern Standard Time
- As a worldwide fellowship are you satisfied that Trustees from all corners of the globe have a fair and equal say in matters relating to Gamblers Anonymous?
- If change is effected, it should be made by a worldwide fellowship. So what options are available to change the current decision making process?
- How long is it since the BOT was restructured to maximise its effectiveness? Do you agree that scheduling ½ yearly BOT meetings is cost effective? Can you or your Intergroup afford flights and accommodation for you to travel to each ½ yearly BOT meeting?
- Is promoting agenda items for each ½ yearly BOT meeting truly advancing the fellowship? Or is it promoting change for change's sake?
- The newly formed committee seeks experienced current and past Trustees to participate on the committee. Email your interest to the email address above.
- Six (6) key facets or talking points will be emailed to Trustees who express an interest in participating on the committee.
- The committee will adopt a blank canvas approach to all suggestions.
- Instructions to phone into the Conference call on 07/17/16 will be emailed to interested participants.
